T.P. (Father) appeals the judgment of the Circuit Court of the City of St. Louis terminating his parental rights to N.R.P. and J.A.P (collectively the Children). On appeal, Father argues that the trial court erred by terminating Father's parental rights because its findings were conclusory, not supported by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence, and against the weight of the evidence.

AFFIRMED

Division Two Holds:

(1) The trial court's termination of Father's parental rights pursuant to § 211.447.5(3) RSMo was supported by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence, and it was not against the weight of the evidence.
